

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
I. War Diary of Captain R. E. Park, 12th Alabama Reg't, Jan. 28, 1863—Jan. 27, 1864.....	I
II. Charles Jones Colcock, 3d S. C. Cavalry. A Biographical Sketch, by Hon. W. A. Courtenay.....	32
III. The Dismemberment of Virginia, by Wm. Baird, Essex, county, Va.....	39
IV. The Coast Defense of South Carolina, 1861-5—The Battle of Honey Hill, by Hon. W. A. Courtenay	62
V. General J. E. B. Stuart—A Tribute, by Capt. R. E. Frayser,	87
VI. Retreat of the Confederate States Cabinet. By Capt. Micajah H. Clark, last Acting Treasurer of the Confederate States.....	96
VII. Report of the Bombardment of Fort Sumter, as given in the Charleston Courier , April 13, 1861. By W. R. Davie, Jr. .	101
VIII. The Battle of Milford Station. An Address, by Serg't C. T. Loehr, before Pickett Camp, C. V., Aug. 31, 1890.....	110
IX. The Battle and Campaign of Gettysburg. From the original MS. By Major-General J. R. Trimble, C. S. A.	116
X. Wm. H. C. Whiting, Major-General C. S. A. An Address before the Ladies Memorial Society, at Raleigh, N. C., May 10, 1895. By Capt. C. B. Denson, of the Confederate States Engineers.....	129
XI. Unveiling of the Monument to the Soldiers and Sailors, C. S. A., at Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 7, 1898. With Addresses by Ex-Gov. Thos. G. Jones, Colonels W. J. and J. W. A. Sanford, Capt. B. H. Screws and Hon. Hilary A. Herbert.....	181
XII. Heroes of Honey Hill. By Hon. W. A. Courtenay.....	232
XIII. The Old Camp Lee, Richmond, Va. An Historical Sketch, by its Commandant, Col. John C. Shields	241
XIV. Stuart's Ride Around McClellan. By Col. John S. Mosby..	246

XV. Moses Drury Hoge, D. D., LL. D. A Memorial. By the Editor	255
XVI. The Visit of General Joseph Wheeler to Richmond, Va., Jan. 16, 1899, on the Occasion of the Presentation of a Portrait of Major John Pelham, to R. E. Lee Camp, C. V., by the Sons of Veterans. With Addresses by Mr. E. P. Cox, Gov. J. Hoge Tyler, General Wheeler and others...	291
XVII. A Recollection of Pelham. By J. B. Moore.....	306
XVIII. "They Honor a Former Foe," at Boston, Mass, Jan. 29, 1899. With incisive comment thereon	308
XIX. Pensioning the Confederate Soldiers by the United States Government. Protest against by Pickett-Buchanan Camp, C. V., Norfolk, Va.....	312
XX. A Southern Account of the Burning of Chambersburg. By J. Scott Moore, 14th Va. Cavalry. C. S. A.....	315
XXI. The Confederate Cause and Its Defenders. An Address by Judge Geo. L. Christian before the Grand Camp C. V., at Culpeper, Va., Oct. 4, 1898.....	323
XXII. Hon. James Mercer Garnett. An Address by Prof. J. M. Garnett, on presenting a portrait of him, at Tappahannock, Essex county, Va., June 20, 1898	347
XXIII. The Confederate Cavalry, Its Wants, Trials and Heroism. An Address by Hon. John Lamb.....	359
XXIV. Confederate Ordnance, the Difficulty in Supplying it. By Prof. W. LeRoy Broun, formerly Lieutenant-Colonel commanding the Richmond Arsenal	365
XXV. Distinguished Dead of the Louisiana Division, Army Northern Virginia. An Address by Capt. B. T. Walshe, at New Orleans, April 6, 1898.....	377

ERRATA.

For assurdly—4th line, p. 256, read assuredly.

For doubtfully—28th line, p. 283, read dutifully.